

RAINY RIVER FIRST NATIONS
Invites applications for the position of
FAMILY WELLBEING PROGRAM
COORDINATOR

Reporting to the Director of Family Services, the Family Wellbeing Program Coordinator is responsible for coordinating the Family Wellbeing Program for Rainy River First Nations. This is a three year pilot program, with the possibility of annualized funding.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor of Social Work or equivalent;
- Minimum of two (2) years' experience in social work;
- Understanding the impacts of family dysfunction and the effects of addictions;
- Knowledge of the dynamics of family and domestic violence;
- Knowledge of Rainy River First Nation and the community's culture, beliefs and traditional ways;
- Knowledge of prevention approaches for Healthy Family Living;
- Ability to develop holistic family healing support programs;
- Ability to organize violence prevention, intervention and safe-home services;
- Must be proficient in computer software, including Microsoft Word and Excel;
- Must have excellent communication skills, both written and verbal.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- Must be able to provide current Criminal Reference Check satisfactory to the First Nation;
- Must adhere to the Rainy River First Nations' Drug Testing Policy;
- Must have the ability to work flexible work hours, which may include evenings and weekends;
- Must have valid driver's license and access to a vehicle.

Please apply in writing by 12:00 PM on Wednesday, March 22nd, 2017. Applications must include a cover letter, current resume, three (3) employment related references (two of which must be from a current or recent supervisor) with permission to contact these references.

Please submit application to: Tammy Ryll, Human Resources Officer
Rainy River First Nations
P.O. Box 450
Emo ON P0W 1E0
Email: t.ryll@bellnet.ca

For further information, please contact Tammy Ryll, Human Resources Officer at (807) 482-2479 ext. 224.

We thank all applicants but only those invited for an interview will be contacted.

The Rainy River First Nation is an equal opportunity employer.

Accommodation is available for applicants with disabilities in the recruitment process upon request.