Keep Cool This Summer

CONSIDER THESE HEAT SAFETY TIPS

- ✓ Heat Tips for Happy Kids
 - Keep children hydrated if playing outside
 - Take children swimming to keep cool
 - Ensure homes with children have AC units
- ✓ Keeping Elders Safe in High Temperatures
 - Create an Elder Heat Protection Plan
 - Identify all Elders in your community
 - Ensure Elders have operating AC units available to them
- ✓ Understand the Signs of Heat Stress
 - Headache
 - Nausea
 - Body aches
 - Confusion
 - Slurred speech
 - Agitation
 - Fainting
- ✓ Recovering From Heat Stress

Did you know that excessive sweating can lead to the loss of electrolytes? When dealing with a health emergency caused by heat, hydrate distressed individual with liquids full of electrolytes. Water alone may not assist the person in distress.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Giishkaandago'ikwe Health Services Launches Revamped Feedback and Employee Recognition Program

Fort Frances, ON – July 3, 2025 – Giishkaandago'ikwe Health Services is proud to announce the launch of its revamped feedback process and employee recognition program, reinforcing the organization's commitment to client-centred care and continuous quality improvement. This updated process encourages clients, families, and communities to share their experiences and ideas for improvement in a simple, accessible, and respectful way.

The updated feedback process is part of the organization's efforts to align its operations with its Strategic Plan by directly supporting:

- Strategic Direction One: The Anishinaabeg will lead the organization so that Giishkaandago'ikwe successes are the communities' successes.
- Strategic Direction Two: Deepen the mutual understanding and relationships between the Anishinaabeg and Giishkaandago'ikwe
- Strategic Direction Four: Clients have access to wrap-around services that promote mino bimaadiziwin

"We recognize that every experience with our services and programs is an opportunity for growth," said Kayla Caul-Chartier, Chief Executive Officer for Giishkaandago'ikwe Health Services. "By listening to the communities and individuals we serve, we are guided by their voice, their stories and their needs – just as our strategic plan commits us to do."

Clients, families, and community members can now submit a feedback form in a variety of simple, accessible ways: through printed "Your Experience" brochures available at all office locations and from front line employees, by speaking directly to an employee and having them fill out the form on your behalf, or online at www.fftahs.org/feedback.

All feedback, whether positive or negative, is recorded and addressed with appropriate team members, and privacy is upheld throughout the process. All feedback is treated with respect and confidentiality. While providing contact information is optional, doing so can support more detailed follow up and resolution.

As part of the new feedback system, Giishkaandago'ikwe Health Services is also launching a Recognition of Excellence program. This initiative invites clients and community members to identify employees who embody excellence, cultural humility, and compassionate care. Employees can be recognized directly through the various feedback channels by including the staff member's name and specific contributions. Recognized employees will be celebrated for their contributions with the presentation of a certificate at all staff meetings, as well as by being highlighted in the organizational newsletter and other corporate communications.

For more information on both the updated feedback process and the newly introduced Recognition of Excellence program, please visit www.fftahs.org/feedback.

We aim to provide the highest quality of services in a client-focused environment and welcome the views of clients, families and communities on the care that is provided.

Sharing feedback and concerns will not impact your access to services in any way.

Do you know a team member who deserves recognition?

Let us know
www.fftahs.com/feedback

Your privacy and confidentiality will be respected and protected. If you don't wish to provide your name, you don't have to. However, we may not be able to fully investigate feedback or follow up with you if it is not provided.

We are committed to:

- Ensuring personal and health information will remain confidential
- Ensuring that your information is recorded accurately
- We are committed to empowering you to understand your rights regarding the protection of your personal health information as well as any feedback you share about services you receive

We strive to provide excellent health services & value all feedback. Feedback can be provided directly to the service provider or program manager, or via this form.

Any feedback, positive or negative, will be recorded and addressed promptly with appropriate members within your circle of care.

Every experience helps us to learn, grow, and improve processes that will lead to better care for everyone.
